This album does not feature his two previous albums, Akon and #1 Contender. According to Akon's official website, Akon has spent the past 10 years recording music on his own, while working with producers such as Jeff Fenovic, Timbaland, Danja, and Scott Storch. In an interview with Hot 97 in 2009, Akon stated that while he was recording the album he was listening to Lil' Wayne, Nas, Eminem, Big Boi, and Birdman. In an interview with Complex on his upcoming album he revealed that it has been 10 years since his last album and he's ready to comeback. He also revealed that his albums will be released in several "chapters" and each chapter will focus on a different part of his life. Chapter one of the release is entitled "The T.R.U. Recordings". It starts off with an hour long show called "The S. U. Show" which features Akon and Lil Wayne talking about their new album, Akon's life, and the end of Akon's previous album #1 Contender. The other chapters are also recorded as a show called The Bossy Boy Show. Akon revealed that he has changed a lot over the past ten years. He went from a rapper to an entertainer. He said that he's also in the entertainment business, not just the music business. In an interview with Billboard he said that he's ready to come back after his last album and says "I feel like I'm ready. I'm more mature. I've been in the industry a long time. I've traveled a lot. I'm ready to come back and do something that people can feel and love." Release and promotion The songs on the album were expected to be released on April 21, 2013. On March 19, 2013 the first single, "Konvicted" featuring Snoop Dogg, was released. The song has peaked at number one on Billboard's Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs chart and number 13 on the Billboard Hot 100. The second single, "I Wanna Love You" was released on April 1, 2013. The song is Akon's first single since "Little Susie" with Pitbull.

This was followed by a remix featuring Jay Z, where he added a verse to the original track "For You". Akon announced the album's official 82
